Dear Parents of Seniors,

We are closing in on graduation, and with graduation comes many, many scholarships from area businesses, alumni, and endowment funds. It has come to my attention from Mrs. Erin Hunter, the school counselor that oversees our scholarship process, we have several scholarships available for which no one has applied.

Mrs. Hunter places announcements in the daily bulletin, sends tweets out on Twitter, and has a wall outside her office with a list of all the scholarships available.

Parents, I am urging you if you have a child that is college bound this fall, they really need to take a few short moments to fill out the scholarship forms so awards can go out to King City graduates.

Sincerely,

Danny Johnson
King City R-1 Superintendent
